

	APPLICABLE EXEMPTIONS. Please note there are black boxes (redactions) on various pages of the responsive documents being provided. A black box may be small or large depending on the amount of information redacted. There may also be multiple redactions on one page. On the page or within the redaction itself, there may be one or more reference codes [e.g. 2A, 2B, ..]. Each code identifies the statutory exemption(s) applicable to the redacted information. If there is only one reference code identified on the page, but numerous redactions, that one statutory exemption applies to all of the redactions on that page. Otherwise, the reference code printed within the redaction designates the exemption for that redaction. The Exemption Code key identifies the statutory basis for the exemption as well as provides brief explanation for why the exemption applies to the redacted information. When reviewing the responsive documents provided, please refer to the Exemption Code Key to identify the exemption and its applicability. We have attempted to apply consistent redactions on document that contain the same information. The disclosure of information in the records being produced does not in any way constitute a waiver of attorney-client and/or work product privileges. 08/28/2018
